The Meaning.

There is a meaning in the fetters we re-ceive daily from Maine to Kanasa, nederin the Rail Splitter in clubs of tens and fiftie and hundreds-in the postseripts, saying nut down this State for ten, twen or one hundred thousand majority for Old Abe." There is a meaning in those little telegraph items which come to the daily papers, telling of "issuecese gatherings of apers, science of someone gatherings or the people" at such a place; and this is the attripretation: The people are determined but hereafter Slavery shall be sectional, and Froedom antional—in fact as in law; and Froedom notional—in fact as in law, into ceruption at Washington shall be pupplanted by incorruption; that free white shee shall be protected whether forced la-ori is or net; that free white men shall see a pitce of land large enough to live n, whether speculators grow rich or puor; hat Abe Lincoln sill be elected and every-ody knows it.

We say to every Republican who wants to work for the election of Lincoln most effectually, "go, thou and do likewise."

The Difference,

The Republican party has committed it-elf most fully to the doctrine of the great Clay: "Protection to American Industry, while both wings of the Democracy are equally committed against it, but in favo of "Protection to African Tolk." The Re of "Protection to African Toll." The Re-publicars believe that man is entitled to the fruits of his labor, the Democracy be-lieve in an aristocracy living upon the de-gradation of those who toil in the field, in the mine, or in the factory, white, as well

"The Republican candidate for Governor we see declines the challenge of Cod. Allen, the Personai consideate, to canvass the State together. There is a great many grouse in that State busides stone greate, The little state one on the increase."—Data. Ex. The first statement is a Democratic lie. The second is true. The Washington Star calls Doughas' richeds "in gang of Abalitionists in discission," and seems really pleased that they have lieft the Democratic party. The have left the Democratic party.
